CLG Grant Award: $30,000

Total Project Cost: $60,019

Consultant: Hardy-Heck-Moore, Inc.

Denton County identified the need to document its communities and rural areas that are under threat due to increased development. After conducting research and map analysis, the consultant presented recommendations for a multi-phase county-wide survey of historic resources in Denton County, not including the City of Denton.

Southwest Travis County Historical Survey

CLG Grant Award: $8,500

Total Project Cost: $17,000

Consultant: Preservation Central, Inc.

The historic resources survey was a continuation of the multiple-phase survey project; this phase included the southwest quadrant of Travis County, which was in dire need of being inventoried due to the projected expansion of SH 45 through the area and continued expansion/development of Austin and Buda.

Fiscal Year 2013

Comal County Historic Resources Survey, Phase 4

CLG Grant Award: $13,250

Total Project Cost: $26,500

Consultant: Hardy-Heck-Moore, Inc.

The Phase 4 of the Comal County Historic Resources Survey includes historic resources prior to 1945 in the Bulverde area of Comal County in order to complete the multi-phased survey project. Comal County has many historic resources that risk potential loss or alterations without historic designation. There is a real threat to the county's historic resources due to developmental pressures from San Antonio, New Braunfels and the I-35 corridor.

Denison Downtown Historic Resources Survey

CLG Grant Award: $3,500

Total Project Cost: $7,000

Consultant: Community Revitalization Strategies

The City of Denison proposed an updated survey of its downtown district, including database development and GIS technology. Preserving the history of this town through the survey is vital to preserving its historic resources, which serve as the foundation of the neighborhood and downtown revitalization programs and as part of a comprehensive economic development strategy for the city.

Palestine Historic Resources Resurvey

CLG Grant Award: $3,000

Total Project Cost: $19,000

Consultant: City of Palestine

The City of Palestine conducted a reconnaissance-level resurvey of its locally designated Downtown Historic District in order to update its 1993 survey. As a commercial district, the Downtown District often represents the primary exposure tourists and visitors receive to the historic city core. This ultimately translates into additional visitation as well as investment into this district, and indirectly to the residential historic district, as visitors become aware of the unit historic character of Palestine.

Southeast Travis County Historical Survey

CLG Grant Award: $7,500

Total Project Cost: $15,000

Consultant: Preservation Central, Inc.

Travis County continues its ongoing efforts to inventory its historic resources in the county and provide data on the entire eastern half of Travis County. This area is in dire need of being inventories due to the continued expansion of SH-130 and the construction of the Formula One Racetrack and its accompanying development.

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION
real places telling real stories

The Certified Local Government (CLG) Program enables any local government — town, city, municipality or county — to develop and sustain a strong preservation ethic that influences zoning and permit decisions critical to preserving local historic resources. In Texas, the CLG program is part of the Texas Historical Commission's (THC) Community Heritage Development Division. It helps to promote local preservation efforts through a partnership between the National Park Service (NPS), the THC and local governments by providing technical and financial assistance.
